"I have been extremely impressed by the team at Integro and feel very much assured that they are at my side. The main difference I have found in my dealings with them, is that they understand motorsport and therefore in turn understand our requirements enabling them to offer the solutions and cover we need. To add, they are quick to react and I definitely feel like we are working together in partnership for mutual benefit, as they care about our business as if it were their own."

Justina Williams – Managing Partner for Excelr8 Motorsport
